Wilson On
Negro Insurance

Pursuant to a popular demand from a large number of his policy holders, the Argus correspondent sought an additional interview with the subject of the sketch, Mr. Jno. R. Wilson, to ascertain as near as possible the growth of Negro insurance business that is sold by Negro agents.

Mr. Wilson spoke very freely and favorably of other Negro insurance agents in St. Louis, Mo., but was very reluctant to refer to his personal achievements in the insurance world. Mr. Wilson finally consented for an interview, the substance of which is as follows:

I was appointed letter carrier at Houston, Tex., when 18 years of age and after serving in that capacity for six years I enlisted in the U. S. Army, being honorably discharged June 30, 1901 at Presidio, Cal. I returned to my native home, Houston, Texas, where I enjoyed the greetings of relatives and friends. I was subsequently appointed clerk in the R. M. S. April, 1903, served in that department until December 8, 1912, when I severed my connection with the United States Government to engage in the insurance business. There is a growing disposition among agents of the race to assist struggling and deserving Negro business enterprises, to the extent that the Negro business man meets competition. Nine years ago, when I began writing insurance as a "side line" while engaged in the government service, I discovered from my then success the possibilities of the insurance business, some of which I have realized.

J. R. WILSON

The particular results to which I would invite your attention are these: The entrance of Negro agents in the insurance business has forced better and more courteous treatment to be given colored patrons by their "white" collectors, has stimulated more prompt service, the payment of claims, and finally has placed within the reach of the Negro policy holder a more liberal contract. I have on my books several hundred policy holders and my collections average more than $500.00 per month which is the result of faithful service to an appreciative constituency. The time isn't far distant, when the great white corporations will be forced by Negro unity behind Negro business to give profitable employment to men of color that they might get their share of Negro business.

Mr. Wilson is general agent of Southern Surety Co., of St. Louis, Mo., which is capitalized at $1,750,000. He has his offices in the Douglas Hotel, where he will be pleased to receive the public at any time.

Mr. Wilson is ably assisted by Mrs. Amanda McGuire, who aside from her technical knowledge of the insurance business, is a public stenographer and solicits the patronage of the public.

Miss Beal wishes to thank her many friends for the service rendered in trying to protect her race and sex.

LESSON

LESSON FOR APRIL 4

SAUL REJECTED BY THE LORD.

GOLDEN TEXT—1 Samuel 15:10-12. LOSTEN TEXT—Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice.—1 Samuel 15:22.

Jonathan's victory (ch. 14) brought to a fitting end the part of the hungry, harassed Israelites in that they ate of the spoils "with the blood" (14:31, 32; Lev. 2:17, 2:26). In the emergency Saul erected "the first altar that he built unto the Lord" (ch. 14:35), a serious dilatory act on the part of a God-anointed king. Saul had resorted to the subterfuge of commanding the people "to eat a great stone," i.e., cut the throats of the animals of which they had eaten that they might bleed, and thus be an evidence that the animals had died before being eaten. This the people did; hearing Saul, they did so (ch. 14:35). These same people rescued Jonathan from the foolish vow of Saul, for it was his faith and valor that had chiefly brought about the victory.

1. God's Sovereignty, vv. 10-12. Samuel had first revealed God's purpose in making Saul king, and likewise first declared God's purpose to dispose of Saul (v. 10). Saul's action (v. 14) had stamped him as being no longer worthy of God's confidence. The word "repenteth," meaning "to sigh" (v. 11), denotes a change of feeling due to Saul's actions and not to any change in the character, purpose or desire of God. God was sorry that Saul had proved himself unworthy.

A half-way obedience of God commands only moral difficulties seem to be for a later age, in Saul's condemnation against Amalek, there were none such for him" (Vaughan). Man's repentance involves a change of mind and purpose. In Saul's case God repented, changed the instrument of his execution, because of the change of circumstances and relation. God is ever the same; it is man alone who changes. Saul had given Samuel cause for anger (v. 11 R. V.), but he did the wise thing in taking it to God in prayer. Arising early the next morning Samuel hastened to acquaint Saul with Jehovah's message. It is remarkable how many of the great men of the Bible are called when they rose early, Abraham, Gideon, Joshua, Job, Jacob, Moses, etc., not to forget our Lord Jesus.

Samuel's Rebuke, vv. 13-19. It must have been a striking scene when the aged Nazirite prophet faced the proud but recent king. A guilty conscience is often covered by a great show of piety (v. 13), but such acts cannot stifle the conviction of the heart nor deceive the righteous Judge. Sin proclaims itself even as Samuel's sharp question brought conviction from the lips of Saul (v. 14; Prov. 28:13). Saul thought to deceive Samuel by using a rebuke (v. 15). The only safe course is to confess our sins (Ps. 32:15; 1 John 1:9). There is an interesting suggestion in the way Saul uses the impersonal "they" and "we" in verse 15, as if to lay the guilt of his acts upon others. It is easy for the sinner to blame others and seek to minimize his own guilt.

2. Saul's Self-Rejection, vv. 20-23. God "repenteth" (v. 19) must have aroused Saul's guilty conscience. It is a question which should reach every tempted soul. Samuel characterized Saul's sin as being due to stubbornness, rebellion, disobedience and rejection of God (v. 19). Again Saul seeks to evade his responsibility (v. 20, 21). Then Samuel speaks plainly (v. 22) comparing his sin of disobedience with witchcraft, stubbornness, iniquity and idolatry. Finally he tells Saul, "Because thou hast rejected the word of the Lord, he hath also rejected thee from being king" (v. 23).

Driven thus to a corner Saul made a confession of his guilt (v. 24) but spoiled it all by acknowledging that he had greater fear of the people than of God.

This is Easter Sunday, our reproach has been removed, not at Gilgal but on Calvary. The unchanging God hates sin, which is unchangeable, but compassed it on the Cross that the guilty sinner may live.

The persistence of sin, the unchangeableness of God and his unchanging hatred of sin was met by the unchanging love of God. "By the obedience of one shall many be made righteous" (Rom. 5:19).

3. The way out of Saul's trouble was his attitude towards the Word of God. Every man's destiny hinges upon what he does with the Living Word.

The resurrection of Jesus in the seal of his authority, the evidence of his power and our eternal salvation depends upon what we do with him, John 3:16; 15:24.

AN EASTER MESSAGE

Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you that God should raise the dead? Things all around us suggest it. The blossoming woods, where love delights to make his bower, are re-dolent in beauty with every spring. Out of what grew all these flowers? Out of mold and the earth. Resurrected! The radiant butterfly, where did it come from? Out of the loathsome caterpillar. That abhorred that smites the tempest with its wing, where did it come from? A senseless shell. Resurrected!

In France, in a Celtic tomb under a block, were found flower seed that had been buried 2,000 years. The explorer took the flower seed and planted it; it bloomed in Bluebell and Heliotrope. Two thousand years ago buried, yet resurrected!

A traveler found in a mummy-pit in Egypt garden peas that had been buried there 3,000 years ago. He brought them out and planted them, and in thirty days they sprang up. Buried 3,000 years ago, yet resurrected!

Where did all this silk come from—the silk that adorns your persons and your homes? In the hollow of a staff, a Greek missionary brought from China to Europe the progenitors of the very worms that now supply the silk markets of the world. The garmented procession down the streets and in the churches on Easter Sunday will be only the blazing out of the resurrected silk worm. And who shall be surprised if out of this insignificant earthly-body, we shall unfold into something worthy of the coming eternities?

Put silver into nitric acid and it will dissolve and disappear. Is the silver gone forever? No. Put in some copper and, the silver reappears. If one force dissolves, another force resurrects.

Every year is a resurrection in all our gardens. Why not, some day, a resurrection amid all our graves?

The far-up cloud, higher than the eagle flies, what is it made of? Drops of water from the Mississippi, other drops from the Missouri, other drops from the lakes and stagnant pools—all up yonder there, and embodied in a cloud, and the sun kindles it. If God can make such a lustrous cloud out of water drops, many of them soiled and impure, can He not transport the fragments of the human body from the earth, and out of them build a radiant body?

Then, all hail! Easter, queen of the royal court of the Sabbaths. There are fifty-one princes in her household, but Easter is queen. She wears a richer diadem, and sways a more jeweled sceptre, and in her smiles nations are irradiated. She holds high up in her right hand the wrenched-off bolt of Christ's sepulchre, and she holds high up in her left hand the key to all the cemeteries in Christendom.

All hail! Easter.

THE PARKWAY AGAIN

It is a good thing that the House of Delegates adopted the resolution calling for a special referendum election, June 8, on the Parkway project. We are sure the City Council will do the same.

We would all like to see this matter settled one way or the other. It has kept our business conditions unsettled and our residential plans upset. We hardly know "where we are at."

The special election will put the decision up to the whole people as to whether we shall have the Parkway or not. The sooner we know, the better; then we can plan and act accordingly.

THE ELECTION

We wish to impress upon the Negro voters of St. Louis the importance of the coming election.

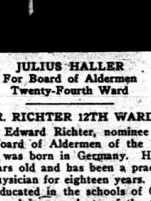

It is the first election under the new system of government, and it is very necessary that the right men be elected as aldermen. But we are not worried over this feature, as the result of the recent primary was very promising.

What concerns us most, and is far more important to our general welfare, is that every Negro voter should go to the polls Tuesday, without fail, and cast his vote. We do not even say for whom—we just say, vote.

Because, it is more important now than ever before that we show our strength. We have frequently tried to make this point clear, that in the city and in the nation, we hold the balance of power—if we would only vote our full strength.

To do so at this election is our sacred duty. To vote our full strength, to show our real power, would be a salutary lesson for the white man. And in the face of a showing of our real strength, he would not dare press the iniquitous measures against us which, of late, have been proposed and agitated.

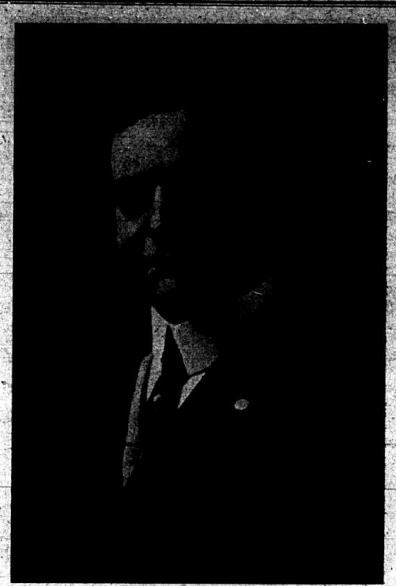

Let every voter vote!

Henry W. Kiel, the man who does things and is noted for his excellent ability as a public servant, of all classes of the people. Through his guidance and frugal effort the people were so imbued that they enabled him to carry the proposed New Charter and the bond issue for the completion of the new free bridge, a feat that had been tried by his predecessors without success. He is the man of the hour. This being a new era, why not stretch forth our arms and assist him to make St. Louis one of the greatest cities of this commonwealth. I have scrutinized the record of the nominees of the board of aldermen and it consists of men of all walks of life and judging from the results, after the primaries, it was the choice of the people.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere thanks to the many friends for their kind words and sympathy extended to me during the recent illness and death of my dear husband, Robert Fox, who departed this life Thursday, March 25, also for the beautiful floral offerings. Mrs. E. Fox.

Dear Mrs. Fox:

The passing of Robert Fox removes from our midst one of our foremost citizens; a figure so commanding; a character so many sided that all who knew him now rest in the shadow of the sorrow that hangs over our fair city like a pall. His three devoted friends wish to herein express their sorrows at the passing to the echolous silence of the voiceless tomb. This man, our beloved friend, our associate, has realized the meaning of a life beyond the grave in his broad hospitalities. We have shared his company; we have been recipients of his kindness and generosity. We three, which in this solemn hour when death makes each of us conscious of the equal frailty of all God's creatures, to express our deep sympathy and great sorrow and the passing of this good man, this husband and friend of the one that has bound four friends together, has been, broken. The tie that bound these four friends together was welded together with the flesh, but not with the mind. In our solemn thoughts, we extend our deepest sympathy to his faithful and devoted wife.

Yours, very sincerely,
K. K. Robinson,
A. W. Guinn,
Wm. Williams

OBITUARY

Mr. Robert Fox was born in the state of Mississippi July 16, 1871. He married Miss Elberta Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Crawford, October 14, 1893. He was 44 years, 8 months and 9 days old and departed this life Thursday, March 25, at 3:50 o'clock A. M. During his illness sister Lattie Smith called often and prayed with him. He made a confession and never ceased praying. After his wife accepted the truth, she noticed a great change in him. He leaves to mourn their loss a beloved wife, a sister, three brothers and a nephew.

A SURPRISE PARTY

The children of the St. Louis Colored Orphan Home enjoyed a surprise party at the home Saturday afternoon, March 27, given by Mesdames Pearl Turner and Julia Harris LeClerc. Quite a number of board members, friends and children were present. The piano numbers by Mesdames Pauline Crates and Margaret Jewell were enjoyed by all. The children of the home entertained the guests with the assistance of Miss Minnie Wade, by singing their favorite songs and reciting memory gems. Ice cream, delicious home made cake, fruit and candies were served in abundance. All spent a most enjoyable afternoon.

Hair Culture Oxford College

If the dark and gloomy days are hanging over your head let the Oxford System bring you joy and happiness to your some suggestions of where you live.
The Oxford System are making the little ones cheerful everywhere each day. This system always steps in just in time.
A mother was discharged, without a penny, and had no one to help her.
Around her there was a number of little ones to be cared for. She at once thought of what she had heard of the Major's Oxford College. Finally she contacted a newspaper, with an advertisement of the Major's Oxford College, which contained the address, 4246 West Belle Pl., St. Louis, Mo. She wrote for her free offer, how to grow hair and beautify the skin. Today no one can discharge her, she is earning from $15.00 to $25.00 per week. It looks impossible, but it is true.
I gladly furnish a testimony from the hundreds which I have:
Dear Sir:

I am more than delighted with my correspondent course, and only wish that all needy mothers and daughters could see this opportunity.
I gave up my school to devote all my time to my customers.
My customers are carried away with results of your wonderful Oxford Treatment, and my own hair is growing.

TESTIMONIALS:

Dear Madam:
I have a friend by the name of Mrs.
Sarah Miller, and have been personally friendly to her for over three years, and during the time she wore a wig. I have been treating her hair for about two months, and now she has taken the wig off, and uses her own hair except a small piece in the back. This treatment is wonderful, I must say. Another lady by the name of Mrs. Emma Tux, when I first saw the lady I was afraid to touch her hair, I thought I would burn her scalp, her hair was so short, and if you had seen her before I began to treat her scalp, you would not believe it was the same head; it was the worst one I have met with. I will mention some more next time.

Your agent,
Mrs. Muriel Hall,
Tampa, Fla.

Dear Madam:
Yes, Nineteen Fourteen, in the month of August, I was visiting my friend, Mrs. Emma B. Willis; she and I were looking over the Voice of the People, a newspaper, and found Major's advertised hair grower, and we both decided to work for the Oxford College. I have tried everything for my hair and nothing did it any good, until I began using Major's Hair Oil, and I feel proud of my hair today, and feel more than able to speak for it anywhere and any time. I can truly say it is the real thing and does the work.

And I will say to all ladies, let us work hard, and use W. L. Major's face creams, hair oils and powder, and look good.

ATHLETICS AND AMUSEMENTS

By H. T. M.

BOOKER WASHINGTON

The last week of Lent showed up very lively at the Booker Washington Theater Monday night. Mr. Turpin had prepared a bill par excellence and the patrons were drinking the various concoctions with ecstasy.

The Payne Trio, headed by Miss Mayne Payne, a winsome soprano, supported by "Kastus" and Clinton Taylor, present an act replete with good, clean comedy, catchy song, and artistic dances. They are going well with the crowds.

Theodore Ranky, one of the highest priced singers in colored vaudeville, a matinee idol of the first magnitude, is winning the plaudits of the gents as well as the ladies with his repertoire of high class songs and recitations. His feature, "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," is almost a classic and is delivered with an impressive feeling that brings out the artistic talent of the actor. He is receiving much praise.

Allen and Wiggins, as gingerly a pair of comedians as ever stepped before the Booker Washington footlights, are taking the house by storm. Wiggins is famous for his back and wing dancing and Allen for his violin executions. They are living up to their reputations this week and keeping the patrons in a continuous round of applause.

The Turpin Artists, the feature card, close the bill. These capable acts are recently from "A King for an Hour." The characters in the tabloid are:

The King: Slim Moore
 The Queen: Gladys Miller
 The Butler: Joseph Burrell
 The theme of "A King for an Hour," and affords much comedy in his efforts to avoid inhuman service of such. The company has made a distinctive bid with its initial performance and bids fair to be a big drawing card during its stay at this popular house.

GIANTS READY FOR THE BIG OPENING APR. 8

Kuebler's Park Will Be The Scene of the Most Exciting Inauguration Colored Baseball Has Ever Had in St. Louis. Champion Belleville Team to be the Stellas Attraction. Mills Has Star Line-up. New Park a Beauty.

The Belleville Maroons, champions of the Trolley League, will oppose the new St. Louis Giants in their opening game Sunday, April 8. Phil Kavanaugh, the famous soccer football star, is at the head of the Maroons. This is one of the best white teams in this section of the country. In the line-up this season will be found such men as Frits, last year with Des Moines, of the Three-League, and Jokers, of the 1915 Detroit American League Club. "Too much big game" cannot be given the officials of the Trolley League for permitting the Maroons to open the Giants' season, this being the first time in its history where a previous year's champions were permitted to play a Negro team before the opening of a season's schedule.

This only exemplifies the extreme popularity of Manager Mills with the whites as well as his own people. Kuebler's Park is in prime condition, a beauty to be admired, and will be a big surprise to the fans on opening day. That the fans will crowd it to capacity on April 8 is assured by the big advertising done for the game. Nearly all have been engaged. Among the occupants will be: Pearl Taylor and party, Ted Pruet and party, Thelma and party, Arthur Chism and party, Sam Shepard and party, James Turner and party, Walter Henderson and party, B. Joyce and party, and the friends, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert T. Meadows, James Glass and party, Ralph Turner and party, Robert H. and party, G. Malone and party, Clinch Smith's party, Miss Birdie Lanewy and party, Miss Gene De-Hawkins and party, Mr. and Mrs. Melville Gamble and party, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Warrington and party, Mr. and Mrs. John Estes and party, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Anderson and party, and five boxes reserved by Robert L. Jones for the American Hotel Waiters. The fair sex will be well represented. The Argus reports that in reviewing the practice this week, discovered what will probably prove true. Out of the big bunch of recruits trying out, Mills will find only three or four who will be able to make the team. Most of the regulars are showing form and season form and there is great chance of the youngsters supplanting such men as McAdoo on first, Bennett in center, Hewett at second, or Lyons in left field. Manager Mills announces that one of the big features on the opening day will be a band concert from 12:30 to 3:30 when the umpire will call, "Play ball!"

GIANTS' NEW UMPIRE SHOULD MAKE GOOD

J. J. Mattjoy, the new Giants' umpire, is a man of talent and should make good in his official capacity. He has served as umpire in the past, prior to the coming of the U. S. and Mexico, and has been an interpreter for the Mexican service in Mexico City, under Porfirio Diaz. He speaks six languages perfectly, and has been at Barcelona, Spain, Hamburg, Havana, Honolulu, and in the Philippines and Panama.

He has had considerable base-ball experience. In Keokuk, Ia., last season, he was selected to umpire the Three-League games for four weeks, during a shortage of officials. He made good and should make good with the Giants.

BALL GAME

The St. Louis Cubs will play their opening game with East St. Louis Giants Sunday afternoon at E. Broadway Park, East St. Louis.

Manager of the Cubs, Henry Pendleton, expects a large crowd to be present.

BIG BIBLICAL PICTURE COMING TO THE MOVIE

"The Shadow of Nazareth," a 3-reel biblical picture will be seen at the Movie Theater Easter day and night. "The Troubles of Rufus," a side-splitting comedy, also will be shown this Saturday night only.

Mr. James is after only the best for his patrons.

BLACK BOX DRAWS BIG

"The Black Box" showing at the Comet Theater every Thursday is the biggest drawing card ever seen at this house. The crowds are so large that standing room is at a premium.
